Billy Graham Training & Library

On October 5, 6 & 7 Jan and I were able to take some training at the Cove (the Billy Graham Training Center) in Asheville, North Carolina. We were able to hear Dr. R.T. Kendall, retired Pastor of Westminster Chapel in England speak on "David, a Man After God's Own Heart." I will be using his lessons as the basis for some sermons in the near future. It was certainly a relaxing and an inspirational time for both Jan and myself. Thank you for giving us the opportunity to attend this seminar.

While we were away we also traveled to Charlotte, North Carolina and made an extended "Pastoral Call" on Angie Petry who is living in Charlotte and teaching in an inner city school there. My, what challenges she faces, but Jan & I are both sure that she is more than up to the challenge! Please keep Angie in your prayers on her own "mission field."

We had planned to see Angie from the start, but a plus of the trip to Charlotte was that we were able to visit the Billy Graham Library which has just recently opened there. The Library is located in a beautiful setting and serves to chronicle the life and ministry of Billy Graham. It is both informative and inspirational. - Pastor Stan

PARTY!! Young Adults will be having a "Day After Halloween" Party on November 1st at the Wainwright's. Feel free to wear a costume or not. Less scary than a "Halloween" party, not as boring as a "Fall Leaves" party.
